In addition, you will find the surrounding countryside with beautiful coastal walks as well as the picturesque New Forest.

Portsmouth

Portsmouth is the second largest city in the county of Hampshire on the South Coast of England. As a significant naval port for centuries, Portsmouth is home to the world's oldest dry dock commissioned by King Henry VII in 1495 at Portsmouth's Historic Dockyard.

Portsmouth Dockyard is also home to some famous ships, including "HMS Warrior", the Tudor carrack "Mary Rose" and Lord Nelson's flagship, "HMS Victory"

Corfe Castle

Corfe Castle is a fortification built by William the Conqueror in the 11th century that stands above the village of Corfe in the county of Dorset. Part of the English National Trust and only 8 kms away from both Swanage and Wareham, it is a major tourist attraction with more than 1,000 years of history to discover.

It is believed that King Edward the Martyr was stabbed to death here on the orders of his stepmother in 978 AD, so that her son Ethelred 'The Unready' could rise to the throne.

You can find really old traditional pubs here. One which is actually an 'old watering hole' (e.g. it has a 'well' and free running water underneath it) in fact, the pub is so small you might miss it. The village has amazing cottage style country shops and houses with thatched roofs (made of straw) and you can take the steam train that runs from Corfe (Castle) to Swanage and back again. It is an idyllic, quaint English country village, with two churches and at least three different pubs and other cafes. You can also choose to sit and sample an English cream tea whilst looking at the castle ruins.

Wimborne

The small market town is dominated by the two towers of the imposing Minster church, but offers a whole lot more. The Minster was built in the 12th century and is recognised for its unusual chained library which is one of only four surviving chained libraries in the world.

The town's shops include many antiques and curios as well as a modern centre. There is an antiques market on Friday, a flea market on Saturday and a huge combination of the two on Sunday.

The historic town is beautifully situated in the picturesque water meadows of the River Stour, where it joins the clear, free flowing River Allen. The town's recorded history dates back to the 8th Century and there are many historic buildings, narrow streets and delightful squares and courtyards to explore.

Every year in June, Wimborne Minster's streets and small squares are filled with hundreds of musicians and dancers for the colourful Wimborne Folk Festival, the largest event of its kind in southern England.

Poole

Nearby, Poole boasts the largest natural harbour in the world and the lovely nature reserve of Brown Sea Island lies in the middle. Pleasure boats wait at the quayside and regularly make the short trip over to the island. Poole Harbour is a great location for water sports like windsurfing, yachting and sea fishing.

Tower Park leisure complex offers a host of up-to-the-minute entertainment facilities, including water slides and Laser Quest.

The town's picturesque old quay retains its 18th-century atmosphere and is an ideal location to have something to eat while overlooking the bay.

Christchurch

Christchurch is uniquely situated on the shore of its own harbour, close to the magnificent Dorset World Heritage Coast and the tranquil New Forest National Park.

It is truly an amazing combination of fascinating heritage, beautiful coastline and countryside with a wide variety of attractions. With a great range of places to eat and drink, a wealth of things to see and do, plus a variety of festivals and events. There is something to suit everyone whatever your age or taste.

The classrooms are very generous in size. The school is about 6 minutes walk from the beach.

The campus is about 10 minutes walk from the beach. Each student gets a single room with a private shower.

The entire university campus is accessible and usable by the students. It is perfectly located in the centre of Portsmouth. From here, it takes only 2 minutes to the main shops and a 10 minute walk to the beach or the historic docks that invite you to visit the HMS Victory, the Spinnaker Tower or the most convenient shopping centre outlet. There are several recreation areas, indoors and outdoors, and a huge study centre.

Adventure Camp

The Adventure Language Camp

The camp is located about 1 km away from the famous Corfe Castle, the fortified ruins of an old castle from the 11th century, which can be visited by foot.

The camp spans approximately 10 hectares on the edge of a forest on a hill which overlooks the port of Poole. Here, our young adventurers can move freely and safely.

Accommodation is provided in 2-6 bedrooms (mostly 4 bed rooms) in very rustic and typically English cottages from the 18th century. Accommodation is available in three adjacent buildings. All Cavendish students and our leaders live in the same House.

Learn as you have fun

At our Adventure Language Camp, students not only greatly improve their English language skills, but also develop team spirit, a willingness to help, build self-confidence, and have lots of fun!

Security guaranteed

All employees of our adventure camps are qualified and experienced professionals. All equipment and staff on the premises of the camp are regulated by the government and are regularly checked according to European safety standards.
