Expand your professional horizons

Your career dreams are bigger than most. It's why you're looking for the perfect mix of academic programs and people; education and career preparation; opportunities and connections to succeed on a global stage. HPU is the place. Here, you'll work closely with professors who include Fortune 500 executives, successful entrepreneurs, renowned scientists, and exceptional artists, among others. Learn from the unique cultural and professional experiences of classmates from across the world. Enjoy extraordinary hands-on learning experiences on our campuses, around Hawai'i and across America. Gain experience through internships and study abroad opportunities worldwide. And connect with successful professionals in every field and in every country.

"HPU is unique in many ways. The downtown campus is at the heart of Honolulu, for example, while the Hawai'i Loa Campus on the Windward side of the island offers a wonderful view of Hawai'i's natural beauty. But the real edge over other places is faculty who bring the real world into the classroom. The majority of them are either experienced professionals in the field or retired executives from industry. They don't just teach from the book, but through their experiences in the working world."

Through HPU's Career Services Center, students routinely find co-op and internship opportunities at prestigious organizations and companies, such as:

- American Express Financial Advisors
- Deloitte & Touche, LLP
- FBI
- Hilton Hotels
- Microsoft
- State of Hawaii
- Polo Ralph Lauren
- U.S. Department of State
- Walt Disney World

"HPU does everything it can to help students fast-track their way to their desired careers. The travel industry, for example, is my passion. And, from Disney, to Starwood, to Outrigger, HPU has good connections with the best companies. Also, the Career Services Center helps set up internships, job shadowings, seminars, etc. Thanks to HPU, I now see a clear career path ahead."

"It is refreshing to live and learn in an environment where you can surf in turquoise waters or take breathtaking hikes after class. It is incredibly positive, too, to grab coffee with your professors and exchange ideas outside of your classroom. By getting involved in various campus activities, I was able to adjust quickly and feel at home."

Discover paradise

You believe college should be the adventure of a lifetime both inside and outside the classroom. We couldn't agree more. After all, be it recreational activities, cultural experiences, or outdoor adventures, few universities offer the diversity of options and opportunities we do. Numerous student clubs to choose from, ranging from academic and professional organizations like the Akamai Advertising Agency or the United Nations Club, to cultural organizations like the Taiwanese Student Association or the Korean student organization, to special interest organizations like the Leaders for a Sustainable Future. 14 NCAA Division II athletic teams. Intramural sports. The global cultures, cuisines, and shopping of downtown Honolulu. The breathtaking beauty of the mountains at our Hawai'i Loa campus. And the incredible outdoor possibilities offered by the Pacific. This is the kind of place where a new adventure awaits you around every corner.

Winning Athletics

HPU welcomes student athletes from all over the world who are committed to giving their best, both in the classroom and with their respective teams. Our Sea Warriors compete at the NCAA Division II level and belong to the Pacific West Conference.

"HPU is a multicultural learning environment like no other," says Miina Huotari '15 from Finland, an International Studies major (with minors in military/diplomacy studies and theater) who speaks four languages. As an HPU student, Miina serves as student body president, has traveled to New York with the United Nations Club, joined the Students' Rights Standing Committee, worked as a Peer Academic Coach, and even competed in two Honolulu marathons. "It's been such a great adventure," she says.

On Campus

- Hang out at our downtown student center, Sharky's Cove, or the Sea Warrior Center where you'll find billiards, ping pong, foosball tables, and more.
- In the mood for some culture? Drop by the theatre or art gallery on our Hawaii Loa Campus.
- Take part in recurring college-wide events such as Movies on the Mall, in addition to such annual and semi-annual events as Club Carnival and Intercultural Day.
- Visit our new Aloha Tower complex that features retail and restaurants, entertainment, community and student gathering spaces, as well as student housing.

Among America's safest, healthiest, and cleanest cities, Honolulu is recognized as a "Top College Destination" in the 2012 American Institute of Economic Research College Destinations Index. It was also named one of "America's 20 Best Cities" to live in by Bloomberg Businessweek.

Three distinct locations

Hawai'i Pacific University is one university with three distinct locales. The Hawai'i Loa Campus is just eight miles (12km) from the urban campus in downtown Honolulu. This campus in Kane'ohe is home to the College of Nursing and Health Sciences as well as the College of Natural and Computational Sciences. The downtown Honolulu campus—home to the College of Business and College of Humanities and Social Sciences—has the dynamic energy you would expect from an urban setting, situated among Fortune 500 companies, near the state capitol, with a multitude of shops and excellent ethnic restaurants of all varieties. The Oceanic Institute, on the island's eastern shore, is an active learning research facility. You may go easily from one campus to the other via our free shuttle bus service.

Off Campus

- Immerse yourself in nearby Fort Street and its bustle of live music, art and other events, restaurants serving up food from across the globe and fascinating shopping options. Use your HPU meal card to sample some of its most popular restaurants.

- Discover some of the world's most amazing outdoor adventures. Paddle board on Waikiki Beach. Enjoy world-renowned surfing competitions on the North Shore. Watch for whales in January and February at the Pali lookout near the Hawai'i Loa Campus. Hike Diamond Head. Enjoy views of waterfalls.
